

PARISH LIFE IN ISO

In times of difficulty and distress many of us find comfort in prayer and uplifting spiritual writings. In the modern era we are bombarded with inspirational, emotional or humorous messages via email and social media. Here is a collection of some of our favourites.

"There is nothing like staying at home for real comfort" Jane Austen

"In the rush to return to normal, use this time to consider which parts of normal are worth rushing back to." Dave Hollis

"Happiness can be found even in the darkest of times, if one only remembers to turn on the light." Albus Dumbledore, Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban.

When do we usually find out who the kids will have for teachers next year? I hope its not me again.

"Tough times never last, but tough people do."
- Robert H. Schuller

"For what are we born if not to aid one another." Ernest Hemingway

"We are in the midst of a highly teachable moment. There's no doubt that this period will be referred to for the rest of our lifetimes. We have a chance to go deep, and to go broad. Globally, we're in this together. Depth is being forced on us by great suffering, which as I like to say, always leads to great love." Fr Richard Rohr OFM
